

Bug Fest Map

Map Legend

Storywalk on the Woodlot

Big N Cheesy Food Truck

Native Plant Sale: Home Earth Alliance and Capital Native Plants

Visit the Mini-Forest: Sing to a baby tree!

Habitat Hopscotch- Play to be a Bug Buddy!

Monarch Migration Game

Water Bug Mist Tent (remove wings!)

Butterfly Banner or Be A Bug Selfie Stations

Insect Safari (2 locations!)

Leave the Leaves for Fireflies & Incognito Insects

Bugly Photo Exhibit

Make your own Butterfly Wings

Bug Fest Activities

Outdoors: North Side

- Insect Safari- Old Field
- Incognito Insects (Hide N' Seek)
- Leaves the Leaves for Fireflies
- Water Bug Mist Tent
- Big 'N' Cheesy Food Truck

#Bugfest5R

Outdoors: South Side & Pavilion

- Insect Safari- Meadow
- Bugly Photo Exhibit: Bugs Are Beautiful, Too!
- Story Walk on the Woodlot: Follow the Tale on the Trail
- Pollinator Garden Tips & Tours
- Plant sale with Home Earth Alliance and Capital Native Plants
- Nature's Accessible Backyard Trail: Visit our three wildflower gardens--- meadow, shady, and sun-loving plants
- Visit the mini-forest: Sing to the baby trees!

In the Center

- Ultimate Guide To Yellow Stripey Things
- Observation Beehive
- Bug and Insect Book Nook- Read and relax on the rug
- The World Needs Insects Exhibit
- Make your own Butterfly Wings
- Scavenger Hunt (available at Greeter desk)

Bug Fest aims to celebrate and cultivate a passion for insects and teach how to nurture their habitat in your own yard or garden. Insect populations are decreasing worldwide, and they require our help. Encourage your friends, children or neighbors to plant an oak tree or native wildflowers at home, which will benefit all your local wildlife. You can have a Bug Fest at home, every day!

Many thanks to our exhibitors:

Cornell Cooperative Extension
Master Gardeners
Home Earth Alliance
Capital Native Plants

Department of Environmental Conservation

